

FIRE STARTER

J.T.C.

THIS will be our gift to Baal!

No!

You're insane!

Shut up, Father!
Your old God is dead!

Queen Jezebel's evil priests of Baal were coming for little Samuel.

No!

Not MY baby!

See | Kings 17-18.

I won't let you MURDER my grandson.

Baal has more power than your God!

The old ways are gone, Papa. King Ahab knows what he's doing.

Ahh, what a lovely sacrifice.

Baal will bless you for this!

Noooooooo

Baal was the sun god.

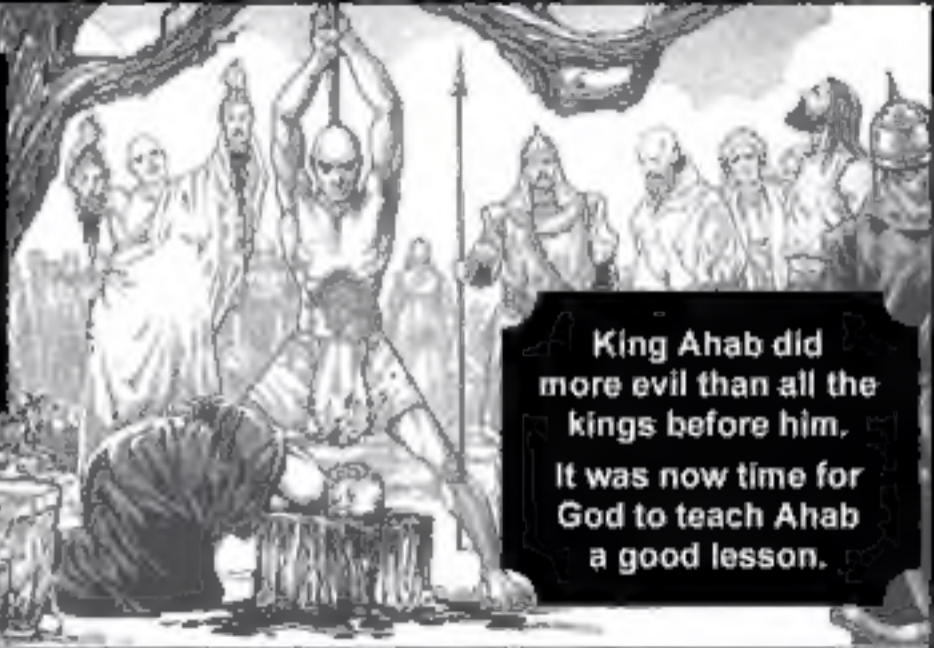

When the fierce heat of summer withered the crops, Baal's priests demanded human sacrifices to appease their idol.

Poor little Samuel was burned alive. This was forbidden in the law of God. (See Deut. 18:10.)

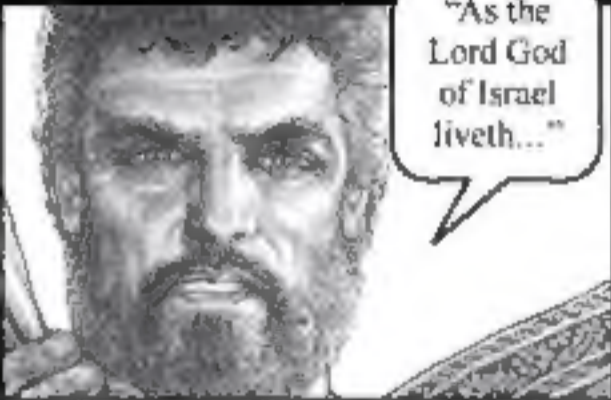

Such was life in Israel in 900 B.C.

Jezebel would not tolerate competition to Baal. She ordered the death of all God's prophets.

King Ahab did more evil than all the kings before him. It was now time for God to teach Ahab a good lesson.

One day the prophet Elijah told Ahab that it wouldn't rain until he said so.

"As the Lord God of Israel liveth..."

God had challenged Baal... whom Ahab believed controlled the seasons.

God told Elijah to go hide by a brook called Cherith.

God commanded the ravens to feed him.

The drought was horrible!

Mama,
I'm hungry!

The food was nearly gone and starvation stalked the land. More babies were sacrificed to Baal.

King Ahab knew that only Elijah could bring rain... so the manhunt began!

I don't want excuses!

I want Elijah!!

Eventually, the brook dried up, too.

So God sent Elijah to a widow who would take care of him.

Elijah asked for water and bread,

She said she was about to cook the last of her food... then she and her son would die of starvation.

Elijah told her not to be afraid, and gave her this wonderful promise...

“Thus saith the Lord God of Israel,
The barrel of meal shall not waste,

neither shall the cruze* of oil fail,

until the day
that the Lord
sendeth rain
upon the earth.”

*A small vessel for holding liquids.

So the widow prepared a meal for Elijah with the last of her food...

and God faithfully fed them throughout the famine.

3 years later God sent Elijah to Ahab

The showdown was coming.

About this time

Ahab summoned Obadiah a man who had disobeyed the king

King Ahab wants to see you NOW!

When Jezebel was killing the prophets of God, Obadiah hid and fed 100 of them in caves. Did the king find out?

No He wanted Obadiah to go find water to keep his horses alive

Gasp!

Obadiah was stunned when he saw Elijah.

Art thou my lord Elijah?

I am!
Go tell Ahab I am here

But if you disappear again he will kill me

"As the Lord of hosts liveth...

I will surely shew myself unto him today."

When Ahab heard the news,
he rushed to meet Elijah

"Art thou HE
that troubleth Israel?"

Ahab wasn't prepared for Elijah's answer.

I have not troubled Israel

But YOU have forsaken the Lord,
to follow Baal m.

Elijah
ordered Ahab and all Israel to gather on Mount Carmel...

along with 850
prophets of Baal.

King Ahab did as he was told because he was afraid of Elijah.

When the hostile crowd blamed
Elijah for the drought, he said:

'How long halt ye between two opinions?

if the Lord be God follow him
but if Baal,
then follow him.

The people were afraid to answer.

This was to be a showdown between God and Satan.

Young bulls were prepared for sacrifice.
Whoever sent fire from heaven and burnt up the sacrifice would be the TRUE God.

Baal!

Hear us, Baal

The 850
prophets of Baal
cried out from early morning until noon
But Baal didn't answer

They looked like fools!

Elijah made fun of them.

Cry louder

Maybe Baal's asleep!

They slashed themselves, but Baal never answered Satan ALWAYS double-crosses his followers.

Now it was Elijah's turn

His altar was soaked with water three times

The evil crowd hoped Elijah would fail so they could kill him.

When Elijah prayed, the Creator of the universe shot fire from heaven and hit Elijah's sacrifice.

The fire burned everything and even licked up the water! The stunned crowd shouted, "The Lord, he is the God, the Lord, he is the God!"

Sam's fate!
His priests were executed.

The people repented
and returned to God

Elijah prayed and God sent rain.

The Lord, HE is God!

Today another showdown between God and Satan is taking place

The prize is YOUR SOUL!

The same one who sent fire and burned up Elijah's sacrifice was born 900 years later in Bethlehem.

He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. (John 1:10)

He was Jesus Christ, the Son of God, born of a virgin named Mary, fulfilling prophecy. (See Isaiah 7:14 and Matt. 1:23.)

Satan was HORRIFIED! The Creator of the universe was walking the earth.

Jesus said:

I am the way,
the truth, the life: no man cometh unto
the Father,
but by me,
(John 14:6)

The reason Jesus came to earth was to shed God's blood for our sins.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son,
that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
John 3:16

When Jesus rose from the dead,
He defeated Satan... again!

Just like those in Elijah's time... we must choose between God and Satan.

Choose the one YOU will serve.

Eternal life in heaven with Jesus

Eternal pain in hell with Satan

Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (from hell). Romans 10:13

THE BIBLE SAYS THERE'S ONLY ONE WAY TO HEAVEN!

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 14:6

NOBODY ELSE CAN SAVE YOU. TRUST JESUS TODAY!

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Rom. 10:9

1. Admit you are a sinner. See Romans 3:10
2. Be willing to turn from sin (repent). See Acts 17:30
3. Believe that Jesus Christ died for you, was buried and rose from the dead. See Rom. 10:9-10
4. Through prayer, invite Jesus into your heart to become your personal Saviour. See Rom. 10:13
